Our International Plans allow You to choose Your excess. The higher the excess You choose, the lower Your premium. You can choose from:

- $0 excess
- $100 excess

Your excess will be shown on Your Certificate of Insurance.

*There is no luggage cover on the International Basic Plan.

Increase Your Rental Car Insurance Excess Cover^

Hiring a car whilst away and not wanting to pay a large excess should You have an accident? Our International Comprehensive and Domestic Plans automatically cover a rental car insurance excess of $3,000. If that is not enough cover, You can increase this amount by paying an additional premium.

^There is no Rental Car insurance excess cover on the International Basic Plan.

Extending Your Journey

Having too much fun? If You wish to be insured for longer than the original period You will need to purchase a new policy through Us prior to the expiry date shown on Your original Certificate of Insurance.

Note: It is a new policy, not an extension of Your previous policy. Should a medical condition first present itself prior to the time of issue of the new policy, it may be considered an Existing Medical Condition under the new policy and therefore may not be covered by the new policy.

Existing Medical Conditions

(You Or Your Travelling Companion)

This policy does not automatically cover claims arising from, or exacerbated by, some existing medical conditions.

An Existing Medical Condition is:

- a) Any physical defect, condition, illness or disease for which treatment, medication or advice has been received or prescribed by a medical or dental advisor in the 90 days prior to the Relevant Time; or
- b) Any chronic or ongoing (whether chronic or otherwise) medical or dental condition, illness or disease medically documented prior to the Relevant Time.

'Relevant Time' in respect of:

- a) Single Trip policies means the time of issue of the policy.
- b) Annual Multi-Trip policies means the first time at which any part of the relevant trip is paid for or the time at which the policy is issued, whichever occurs last.

If You are unsure whether You have an Existing Medical Condition, please phone Us.

When And How Are Benefits Provided?

The benefits for which You are insured under this policy are payable:

- when an insured event occurs during the Period of Insurance causing You to suffer loss or damage or incur legal liability; and
- Your claim is accepted by Us.

After calculating the amount payable We will either:

- pay for replacement of (after allowing for depreciation) or repair of Your personal luggage;
- pay for specified Additional expenses;
- pay the person to whom You are legally liable; or
- pay You.

Additional Policy Information

The insurance that Great Lakes Australia offer You is set out in the PDS and Policy Wording. It is important that You:

- are aware of the limits on the cover provided and the amounts We will pay You (including any excess that applies);
- are aware of the Words with Special Meanings found in the Policy Wording on pages 26-29; and
- are aware of the maximum benefit limits shown in the Benefits Table on pages 6-7.
- are aware of the Policy Conditions and General Exclusions found in the Policy Wording on pages 30-52.

Change Of Terms And Conditions

In some circumstances the terms and conditions of the policy may be amended by Us provided We give You notice in writing.

Your Duty Of Disclosure

You have a legal duty of disclosure to Us whenever You apply for, or change an insurance policy.

What You must tell Us

You have a general duty to tell Us everything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to insure You, and if We do on what terms. Your general duty applies until the time You enter into the insurance policy.

However, Your duty does not require You to disclose anything:

- that reduces the risk to be undertaken by Us;
- that is generally well known;
- that We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business, ought to know; or
- in respect of which We have waived Your duty.

If You do not tell Us

If You do not answer Our questions honestly or do not properly disclose to Us, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or may cancel the policy. If You act fraudulently in answering Our questions or not disclosing to Us, We may refuse to pay a claim or treat the policy as never having existed.

Your general duty applies to changes

Your general duty applies in full when You change or reinstate the insurance policy.

Your general duty is limited for new policies

When You apply for a new policy Your duty of disclosure applies, but You do not need to tell Us something unless We specifically ask You about it. However You must be honest in answering any questions We ask You. You have a legal duty to tell Us anything You know, and which a reasonable person in Your circumstances would include in answering the questions. We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure You and anyone else to be insured under the same policy, and on what terms.

Who needs to tell Us

It is important that You understand You are disclosing to Us and answering Our questions for yourself and anyone else You want to be covered by the policy.

Code Of Practice

We have adopted the General Insurance Code of Practice developed by the Insurance Council of Australia. The Code is designed to promote good relations and good insurance practice between insurers, authorised representatives and consumers.

The Code sets out what We must do when dealing with You. Please contact Travel Insurance Partners if You want more information about the Code.

The Amount You Pay For This Insurance

The amount We charge You for this insurance policy is the total amount of the premium that We calculate to cover the risk and any relevant government charges (such as GST and stamp duty). These amounts add up to the total amount You must pay. Once the policy is issued Your total premium and any relevant government charges are shown on the Certificate of Insurance. If You change Your policy in any way You may be entitled to a partial premium refund or be required to pay an additional amount.

How Various Factors Affect The Amount Payable

We consider a number of factors in calculating the total Amount Payable. The key factors that affect the amount You pay include the plan, the area to which You are travelling, Your age, the excess, the duration of Your Journey and whether You take out additional cover.

The following is a guide on how these factors combine together and may impact on the assessment of risk, and therefore Your premium.

- Plan – the International Comprehensive Plan, which provides more cover, costs more than the Domestic Plan.
- Area – higher risk areas cost more.
- Age – higher risk age groups cost more.
- Excess – the higher the excess the lower the cost.
- Duration – the longer Your trip the more it usually costs.

- Extra Cover Options – additional premium may apply.
- Existing Medical Conditions and pregnancy – additional premium may apply if accepted for cover.

How A Claim Payment Is Calculated

When We pay a claim We consider a number of aspects in calculating the amount. These can include:

- the amount of loss or damage or liability;
- the excess;
- maximum benefit limits and sub-limits;
- reasonable depreciation; and
- the terms and conditions of the policy.

The following example illustrates how We will calculate the amount payable for a claim:

- Your new video camera worth $4,000 is stolen from a hotel room.
- You are travelling on International Comprehensive Plan.
- You have chosen the nil excess option.
- You have not paid an additional amount to increase the standard item limit.

The amount payable following the claim would be calculated as follows:

- consider the value of the video camera – $4,000 (no depreciation applies because the video camera was new).
- consider the maximum benefit limit for Luggage and Personal Effects – $7,500.
- consider the maximum item limit payable for cameras and video cameras – $3,500. This item limit does apply in this case.
- as You have chosen the nil excess option, no excess is deducted. This results in an amount payable of $3,500.
